I.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On June 3, 2008, while conducting Border Patrol Linewatch operations, Horse Patrol Agent Leyva responded to a seismic sensor in the area, about 5 miles west of the San Ysidro Port of Entry and about 200 yards north of the international border. Agent Leyva encountered an individual, later identified as Jose Gonzaga-Ceja. Gonzaga-Ceja advised that he was a citizen of Mexico, and had no papers to be in the United States legally. He also advised that he was being smuggled into the U.S. on horseback. Leyva placed Gonzaga-Ceja under arrest.

Leyva received a radio call that there were two other subjects on horseback in the same area. He located the individuals, who were riding on a single horse. The man was the defendant, ERNEST GUERRERO, and the woman was Soledad Martinez-Jimenez. Soledad identified herself as a U.S. citizen. She also advised that she had just served time for aiding and abetting illegal aliens. GUERRERO and Martinez said they didn't know Gonzaga-Ceja, but he had been trying to attach himself to them. GUERRERO said the horse he was riding belonged to him, but later stated it belonged to his cousin. He admitted having seen Gonzaga-Ceja at the stables.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

A. DEFENDANT'S DISCOVERY MOTION

The defendant has received discovery in this case. The following responds to the defendant's specific requests:

1. The Defendant's Statements

The Government has produced arrest reports disclosing the substance of all oral and written statements of the Defendants. The

1 Government will continue to produce discovery related to Defendant'
2 statements made in response to questions by Government agents. The
3 Government notes that Defendant was advised of his Miranda rights
4 twice, and Defendant invoked his right to remain silent. The
5 Government has already turned over the law enforcement reports
6 containing the substance of Defendant's pre-arrest statements.

7 2. Arrest Reports, Notes and Dispatch Tapes

8 The Government has provided the Defendant with arrest reports.
9 Relevant oral statements of Defendant are included in the reports
10 already provided. Agent rough notes, if any exist, will be preserved,
11 but they will not be produced as part of Rule 16 discovery.

12 A defendant is not entitled to rough notes because they are not
13 "statements" within the meaning of the Jencks Act unless they
14 compromise both a substantially verbatim narrative of a witness'
15 assertions and they have been approved or adopted by the witness.
16 United States v. Bobadilla-Lopez, 954 F.2d 519 (9th Cir. 1992); United 17 States v. Spencer, 618 F.2d 605 (9th Cir. 1980); see also United
18 States v. Griffin, 659 F.2d 932 (9th Cir. 1981).

19 3. Brady Material

20 The Government will comply with its obligation under Brady v.
21 Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).

22 4. 404(b) Evidence

23 The Government will provide the defendant with notice and any
24 404(b) evidence.

25 //

26 //

27 //

28 //

1           5. Tangible Objects

2           The Government will provide copies of and/or an opportunity to
3 inspect all documents and tangible things material to the defense,
4 intended for use in the Government's case in chief, or seized from 5 Defendant.

6           The Government will try to preserve all evidence to which
7 Defendant is entitled, but objects to any global request for
8 preservation of all evidence as contrary to Arizona v. Youngblood, 488
9 U.S. 51, 57 (1988) (improper and unwise to impose on the government
10 "an undifferentiated and absolute duty to retain and to preserve all
11 material that might be of conceivable evidentiary significance in a
12 particular prosecution").

13           6. Impeachment Evidence

14           The Government will comply with its obligations to disclose
15 impeachment evidence under Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150
16 (1972). The Government will also provide the criminal history and 17 prior material acts of misconduct, if any, of its trial witnesses as
18 mandated in Giglio. The Government also agrees to provide information
19 related to the bias, prejudice or other motivation of Government trial
20 witnesses as required in Napue v. Illinois, 360 U.S. 264 (1959). In 21 addition, the Government will disclose all impeachment material, if
22 any, when it files its trial memorandum, although it is not required
23 to produce such material until after its witnesses have testified at 24 trial. United States v. Bramble, 103 F.3d 1475 (9th Cir.1996). The 25 United States fully recognizes its obligation to disclose evidence of 26 bias or motive to lie, or problems in witness perception, if any is 27 known to exist.

28 //

1       7. Agent Misconduct Information

2       The United States will comply with United States v. Henthorn, 931
3 F.2d 29, 30 (9th Cir. 1991), which the Ninth Circuit has held to not
4 require the Assistant United States Attorney to personally review the
5 personnel files of government agents. United States v. Jennings, 960
6 F.2d 1488, 1492 (9th Cir. 1992), reaff'd by United States v. Herring,
7 83 F.3d 1120, 1122 (9th Cir. 1996).

8       8. Agreements Between the Government and Witnesses

9       To date there are no agreements between the Government and any
10 of its witnesses. If there are any made, they will be disclosed.

11       9. Bias of Informants or Cooperating Witnesses

12       The Government will comply with Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S.
13 150 (1972). It must be noted that this case is a case which did not
14 utilize the services of informants.

15       10. Residual Request

16       The Government will comply with all rules of discovery.

17 B. THE REQUEST TO FILE ADDITIONAL MOTIONS IS SUBMITTED

18       Defendant's request to file additional motions is submitted to 19 the sound discretion of this Honorable Court.

20                   III.

21                   THE GOVERNMENT'S MOTION FOR RECIPROCAL
22                   DISCOVERY SHOULD BE GRANTED

23       The Government moves for all discovery to which it is entitled
24 under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(b) and 26.2.

IV.

CONCLUSION

For the above stated reasons, the Government respectfully requests that the Defendant's motions be denied, except where unopposed, and the Government's motion for reciprocal discovery be granted.

DATED: August 14, 2008

Respectfully submitted,
